28 December 2025 to 5 January 2026

You're invited:

The school will be held in leafy Ilam, accommodation is at College House, an independent university hall of residence, and evening dances are to be held at nearby Medbury School's hall. Christchurch, gateway to the South Island's magnificent scenery, has a revitalised centre, post earthquake, that just invites exploration, for those afternoons when you are not dancing.

Classes:

A wide range of classes is available for dancers. From Development (first year or two of dancing experience) through to Very Advanced High Impact and a Musicians Course.

Full class details and guidelines are provided on the website, to help you select the best class for your ability and experience. Morning classes are compulsory and attendees are expected to participate fully.
