Information

March 16th & 17th is planned as the first of four weekend classes to be run at the Scottish Society Hall, Christchurch, to help Scottish Country Dancers raise the level of their dancing, and get more from their social activity. Each school will build on the lessons learned in the previous class, thus allowing dancers to progress their dancing ability. This should not stop dancers from attending only one or more class, but to gain the maximum benefit, it would be advantageous if dancers were able to attend all four.

Having four teachers booked for the weekend schools will allow each teacher a chance to run one development and one advanced class, and rotating who runs what and when, also allows a degree of variety for the dancers.

Teachers

Sue Lindsay (Picton and Blenheim)
Graeme Plank (Christchurch)

Linda Glavin (Picton and Blenheim)
Hazel Fish (Waimate)

Classes

- ★ Development – for those who are new to dancing or who have been dancing for a period but sometimes need reminders about basic formations (e.g., reels of three on the side) and progression, and who are keen to learn more and to develop their dancing.
- ★ Advanced – for those who have a good knowledge of the basic steps, the usual formations, the importance of phrasing and teamwork, and are keen for some challenges and are striving to be at the top of their game.

The theme for the year is for everyone to improve their technique while applying the model defined by the founder, Dr Milligan: Attaching importance to good standards of dancing while emphasizing the social character of Scottish Dancing. Above all, it should be enjoyable, offering plenty of opportunity for friendship, fun and fitness.

Music

There will be live music in all classes and the evening dance.
